mysore small cause courts bill, 1962.

(as reported by the Joint Select Committee.)

(Consideration of Clauses—continued.)

Mr. SPEAKER.—Now the Minister for Law will reply.

†Sri M. V. RAMA RAO (Minister for Law).—Sir, yesterday, I was replying to the debate which took place on clause 10 of this Bill. I was saying that the provisions contained in clause 10 of this Bill were nothing new and that they contained nothing new to those who are familiar with the phraseology and the scheme contained in section 17 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act. I read yesterday from the text of the section 17 of that Act and also referred to the interpretation which has been placed by different High Courts upon the language used there which is the same language employed here. I wish to bring it to the notice of the House that identical language is used in the Kerala Act and similar Acts in the other parts of the Indian Union. Now, the whole point is that the phrase ‘previous application’ seems to have created certain doubts and difficulties in the minds of some Hon’ble Members. The point is that a Court of Small Cause proceeds to try cases summarily; issues are not framed, the entire evidence is not recorded; only a memorandum of the evidence is made and no elaborate argument and reasoning is resorted to and so on. For a court which is to deal summarily with hundreds and hundreds of cases every day, if an application to set aside a decree passed ex parte or to review a judgment already made is to be made in accordance with the Civil Procedure Code, contained in order IX or other Chapters which deal with the review of application, then, the same elaborate proceedings have to be followed, which means re-opening of the intention of an aggrieved party or the supposed aggrieved party or requiring the court to embark upon the procedure which is prescribed for the trial of original cases and it is to obviate this and to provide only for bona fide cases where an ex parte decree was passed on grounds other than that summons in the suit was not duly served or for a review of judgment on grounds other than a mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, that this is inserted here. It is only in the other cases that the amount of decree should be deposited in the Court or security should be furnished as directed by the Court. It is in those cases that this clause will apply. The procedure which is followed under this clause has been so very clearly laid down by successive judicial pronouncements. The pith and substance of the ground is that an application has to be made by the person who seeks to set aside the decree on the grounds specified in that clause and, in that case, for furnishing the security he must obtain the order from the Court and so on; an application for obtaining the directions of the Court is not required to be in writing and so it may also be made orally. So, there is no harassment, no extraordinary hardship caused to the defendant. This procedure, is already in vogue, has been in vogue for decades and decades and has neither caused any difficulty to any litigant nor to the lawyer. Therefore, I suggest that this amendment be withdrawn and the clause may stand as it is.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Hon'ble Minister forgets that the member who moved the amendment is not here. (Laughter.)

The question is :

“ That in clause 10, in sub-clause (1) lines 2 and 3, the words “ or by this Act” shall be deleted.”

The motion was adopted.

Clauses 13 to 17, both inclusive, were added to the Bill.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Clause 18. There is an amendment. The Hon'ble Member is not present and therefore his amendment is not moved. The question is :
